IN TOUCH

Friday 24th November 2017

Issue 463

Apologies, that there was no In Touch last week, we have two weeks to catch up on... Last week was National Anti-Bullying Week and we marked it on Friday 17th with a day of special activities in class. I hope you have all received a letter from me along with accompanying documents?

Also last week, the governor's Pupil Committee met on Monday evening, Year Six took a trip to The Crystal over in South East London and had an amazing day out, Year Five went to Godly Play up at the Church and we all had our individual photos taken. Thank you to Mrs Abraham for stage managing this gargantuan task!

This week, our Year Fives and Sixes have been very excited as they have headed off to Sayers Croft for their annual school journey. Year Five went down on Monday for an overnight stay and Year Six went down on Tuesday and are on their way back as I type! There was a very big excited cheer as the coach pulled into the environmental centre on Tuesday. I was lucky to travel down with the Year Sixes and to come back with the Year Fives. I am told that both groups have been a pleasure to be away with, which was lovely to hear from both Sayers Croft and our own staff. I am very grateful to Mrs Rinaldi, Mrs Khatib, Mr Lett and Mrs O'Connell for volunteering to spend time away from family and friends so that our children can have this amazing opportunity. I am very grateful to Mrs Bishop for the same but for also overseeing the organisation of our annual trip to Sayers Croft. A very big thank you to all of the staff on behalf of the children too—they have had an amazing time this week!

I would also like to say a very big thank you to FoSMs for our beautiful Christmas Trees. We are very lucky and have one in the office and one in the Hall. This morning we looked at the decorations the children have been making in class and awarded certificates to those children whose creations will go on the tree in the office. All of the decorations will come home before Christmas and hopefully you will enjoy them on your own trees at home!

We've all looked cool in our MUFTI today. Thank you to all of the families who have donated items for the Christmas Fayre and a quick reminder that it is the FoSMs Christmas Party tonight at 8pm in The Duke this evening! Enjoy the party and have a restful weekend,
Cheryl Payne—Head Teacher
