The day of the fair has finally arrived! We are all very excited! Before the fair begins I would like to say a very special thank you to Lynda Donlon, Nadia Beji, Sandra Matovu, Malin Spencer and Angela Mullen Kolver; who have all worked tirelessly to get this afternoon's event up and running. Michelle McDermott has done a fabulous job of project managing the event and as I write, Santa has arrived (and is in makeup) and the grotto is being assembled! A huge thank you to Michelle for taking on this wonderful event in the school calendar and for all of the planning, preparation and hard work that she has been putting in for weeks in advance already! I have a feeling its going to be another corker of a fair! Thank you to all of the parents who have counted and wrapped jam jars, baked, mulled, collected and crafted items for this afternoon. I am very grateful for all your hard work and look forward to seeing you all shortly!

...Earlier this week, Year Six went Carol Singing outside East Putney station to raise funds for Health, Poverty, Action. They got soaking wet, but were still in good spirits once they returned! Elsewhere, Year Five have been to the National Gallery, Transport for London have been in school to talk to our Year Six cohort ahead of their transfer to secondary school and the Anti-Bullying Ambassadors have been preparing for their training session this coming Monday.

Reverend John has been in school to meet with our RE Subject Leader, Mrs Thomas and I have been up to the church to meet with John to discuss next term's collective worship plans. We are very grateful to John for the enthusiastic and fantastic support he gives us all in our spiritual and academic development.

I also met with John and Caroline Donne this week and would like to say a very big thank you to Caroline and the amazing team who deliver our Godly Play sessions at the church each term. The children really enjoy and value these sessions and we are very grateful to the church for providing us with this opportunity to learn about the Bible and to explore our faith.

Coming up in the week ahead; the Anti-Bullying Ambassadors are going to complete some long awaited training with the Diana Award on Monday. We will be joined by Miss Wood and the Ambassadors from All Saints. We are looking forward to spending the day with our friends and colleagues at All Saints and to learn more about how we can prevent bullying in our schools.

Nursery will be taking their very first trip out and about in Putney next week as they head to... the post box to post their letters to Father Christmas! On Monday, The Key Stage One Choir are going to The Platt Centre to sing some carols. Huge thanks to Mrs Le Prevost for preparing the children in the Choir and the Year Sixes for their carolling engagements.

On Wednesday next week, Nursery have their Exit Point, with Year Two looking forward to welcoming their parents into school for theirs on Thursday. The governor Resources Committee will meet on Thursday evening and we will round off the week with a celebration assembly. All parents and carers are welcome. We will be celebrating our children's accomplishment both in and outside school. Please enter via Charlwood Road for a 9.15am start.

What ever you are doing this weekend, I hope you find some time to rest. I hope to see many of you at the fair shortly, but if I don't then have a wonderful weekend and we look forward to seeing you all on Monday for another week of fun and learning at St. Mary's!
