Issue 525

It was a real pleasure to take children from Key Stage Two to sing in the Kids' Choir event at the Thames Festival last Sunday. The children did us proud; behaving impeccably and singing beautifully! Thank you to Miss Donlon for coming with us and for joining in with great gusto! It was lovely to see many Year Seven pupils who returned to sing at the event with us - all looked well and have settled in to their respective secondary schools. Huge thanks to all of the parents for their fabulous support during the day and for being such a great audience.

Many thanks to Molly and Omari who have been with us as part of their initial PGCE training this week. I know the staff team have found their support invaluable and we hope they enjoyed their time with us and we wish them all the very best in their training.

All of our Meet the Teacher meetings are now complete for the year. Many thanks to all of you who attended these, we hope you found them useful.

A reminder that clubs have started this week and the dates for each individual club are up on the website. Please do check:

www.stmarysschoolputney.co.uk if you have any queries. Payments for clubs will all be up on SIMS Agora next week.

Thank you to our Early Years Team for the parent workshop on the new EExAT system this week. Looking ahead to next week, we have a Learn to Love to Read Workshop. If you are a parent and haven't attended one of these yet you might find it really helpful/interesting, especially if you have a child who is just starting school or one for whom reading is a particular challenge. Many thanks to Mrs Livingstone for organising these really valuable workshops. This morning children in Years One to Three were at the Old Vic for an author workshop. Many thanks to Mrs Livingstone for organising this. All of the children came away with a book and hot tips on how to be a great writer. Next week Year Two are off to the Florence Nightingale Museum on Tuesday and Year Five to the British Museum on Friday. Until then, have a restful weekend and enjoy the sun on Saturday!
