Issue 538

Many thanks to Mrs Livingstone for leading worship in my absence this morning. I was at the Diocesan Board with Mrs Bishop and Mrs Dunford for some statutory safeguarding training. It was lovely to return to school this evening for a good sing and dance with the Key Stage Two Choir. We are now almost three weeks from our Young Voices concert at London's O2 Arena and we are very excited already! More information for parents with children in the Key Stage Two Choir will follow soon.

This week, children in Reception and Year Three went to the Natural History Museum on Thursday to enhance their learning in school and Reverend John was in school again this week to lead our half termly Eucharist. It has been lovely to see him twice in so many weeks. Please remember that you are all welcome to join us for our communion services.

Looking ahead to next week, we have a School Council meeting on Friday afternoon and it is also Victorian Day in Year Five when our fabulous Year Five pupils will be replaced by street urchins and well to do ladies and gents and Mrs Rinaldi will be replaced by a very strict harridan! Watch out for that cane!

That's all the news for this week—short but sweet! Have a restful weekend and we look forward to seeing you all on Monday!
