"My 2 children, aged 6 and 8, are attending weekly after school art classes and they love it. I'm so proud of the beautiful art they've been producing. This is not just another place to keep your kids busy, but an authentic place to learn and grow in art. I would recommend Cygnets to everyone."

Calling all potential performers! - Putney Methodist Church is hosting a community production of Benjamin Britten's short opera about Noah's ark, Noye's Fludde. It will be performed on Saturday, 8 February at 3:00 and 6:00 pm. All children from the local community are warmly invited to be part of this exciting venture, singing and performing as the animals in the ark. There are just two rehearsals - Saturday, 1 February from 9:30 am to 3:30 pm, and a short one on the evening of Friday, 7 February. The whole event is entirely free and no musical experience whatsoever is necessary. It should be great fun for all involved! For more details, please see visit www.putneymethodistchurch.org.uk.
