Mrs Rinaldi was really impressed with Year Five when she took them to the Houses of Parliament on Tuesday this week. The class were really great ambassadors for St. Mary's and asked some really good questions during their time there. Huge thanks to a family member in Year Five for setting up this visit for the class and to the Year Five team for accompanying the children.

This week in worship we have been learning about Saints within our overall theme of Grace. We've looked at St. Mary, St. Benedict, St. Catherine and St. David. It was lovely to see Jarel on Monday when he came to lead an assembly on St. Catherine and we are really looking forward to seeing Reverend Jono next Monday as he starts our week of Grace in Song. Many thanks to John and the Parish team for the support they have given us in helping us to unpack God's Grace.

Unfortunately, the Cross Country event at the weekend has been cancelled, the organisers have deemed the ground too wet to run on.

Looking ahead to next week, Mrs Livingstone is taking netballers in Years Five and Six to a Borough tournament on Wednesday. On Thursday, we look forward to a visit from the NSPCC who will be coming into school to talk to us all about Speaking Out and Staying Safe, before leading workshops in Year Five and Six. Members of the Key Stage Two Choir are off to London's O2 Arena to perform in the Young Voices concert in the evening. They will be singing with Spandau Ballet's Tony Hadley amongst others.

Friday was going to be our second Anti-Bullying Day, but some of the Anti-Bullying Ambassadors thought they might be a bit tired after their trip to the O2 and so they have asked if we can postpone it. We will move the day into next half term and I will write again soon to let you all know when it is.

Next Friday is a full Celebration Worship session and we invite parents and carers to join us in the hall from 9.15am to celebrate all of our children, and especially those in receipt of a Learning Warrior certificate. We hope to see some of you then. Until then, have a restful weekend and we look forward to seeing you on Monday!
