Issue 592

VISION: Delivering excellence, allowing all to flourish
MISSION: Creating a culture of wonder, guided by Christian Faith
VALUES: COMPASSION - ENDURANCE - THANKFULNESS

It has been great to see the classes enjoying their learning inside and out this week. Budding gardeners in Nursery and Reception are loving growing a range of fruit and vegetables—including peas, beans, courgettes and strawberries. Watering the plants as well as each other is a great new skill! I wonder who will grow the tallest?

There is a real 'buzz' around reading at the moment as classes in KS2 are participating in the UEFA reading challenge— a knock out competition linked to the Euro's but with a focus on promoting favourite books as well. Children are battling it out developing their debating skills, keen to find out which books make it to the next round! Can't wait to find out.

In our Celebration Worship this week, Mr Lett presented children who took part in the Tag Rugby Festival last week with certificates and medals in recognition of teamwork, respect, enjoyment, discipline and sportsmanship! Well done everyone!

Wishing you a good weekend.
